Privacy Policy

Effective Date: 24-09-2025

Codestate (“Company”, “we”, “our”, or “us”) respects the privacy of our users and is committed to protecting it. This Privacy Policy describes how we collect, use, store, and protect information when you access or use our websites, web applications, and mobile applications (collectively, the “Services”).

By using our Services, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

1 Information We Collect

1.1. Information Collected Through Web Applications and Websites

When you access our web applications or websites, we may automatically collect the following information:

- Internet Protocol (IP) address
- Web browser type and version
- Screen size and resolution
- Pages, features, and interactions within our Services

1.2. Information Collected Through Mobile Applications

Our mobile applications do not actively collect personal information. Any data collected is limited to information automatically provided through Apple App Store Connect (for iOS applications) or other equivalent app distribution platforms. Such data may include:

- Device type and operating system
- Application usage statistics
- Crash and performance reports

No additional personal data is collected by our mobile applications.

2 Use of Information

We use the information described above solely for the following purposes:

- To operate, maintain, and improve the performance and usability of our Services
- To analyze trends and usage in order to enhance user experience
- To monitor, detect, and prevent fraudulent, abusive, or unlawful activity
- To maintain the overall security and stability of our Services

We do not sell, rent, or otherwise share personal data with third parties for advertising or marketing purposes.

3. Data Retention

All data collected through our Services is stored on servers located within the European Union (EU). We retain collected information only as long as reasonably necessary to achieve the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy, or as required by applicable law.

4. Third-Party Services

Our Services may rely on third-party providers, such as app distribution platforms, for analytics and performance reporting. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Apple App Store Connect (for iOS applications)
- Other app store providers where applicable

We encourage you to review the respective privacy policies of these third-party providers to understand how they process your information.

5. Your Rights

Depending on your jurisdiction, you may have certain rights regarding your personal data, including the right to:

- Request access to the personal data we hold about you
- Request correction or deletion of your personal data
- Restrict or object to certain data processing activities
- Lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority

To exercise these rights, please contact us using the details provided in Section 8.

6. Security

We implement commercially reasonable technical and organizational measures designed to protect information against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. However, no method of transmission or storage is entirely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

7. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may revise this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be effective upon posting of the updated policy on our website, unless otherwise required by law. We encourage you to review this page periodically for the latest information on our privacy practices.

9. Contact Information
